Global Ambassadors

Be a part of a vibrant intercultural community! Global Ambassadors are peer mentors who promote intercultural exchange by providing a support group and a variety of social events for new UC Davis international undergraduate students.

Events include:
- Trip to Corn Maze
- Halloween Party
- Lunar New Year Celebration
- Monthly club-style meetings
- And, more!

To get more information about Global Ambassadors, contact us at sissconnect@ucdavis.edu!

“Foundations for University Success for International Students”
EDU 98/EDU 198 Course offered fall, winter & spring quarters

EDU 98: for new international freshmen students
EDU 198: for new international transfer students

In this course, students will learn about American culture with members of the campus community. Students will also learn skills to help them adjust to life as a university student in the United States. New international students may register for one 2-unit P/NP seminar each quarter of their first year at UC Davis.

To learn more about the course and how to register, visit: siss.ucdavis.edu

› Students
› Newly Admitted Students
› EDU 98 & EDU 198 Course—International Students
International Café

Connect with international students and scholars, domestic students, staff, and families! Join this monthly social event to enjoy free refreshments and participate in crafts, games, or activities with a theme.

Global Engagement Mondays

Attend a weekly discussion with Americans and the international community to share and learn about common topics of interest in a relaxed, casual environment. Meet new people from around the world and hear new perspectives.

Mondays 5:30—6:30pm

International Friendship Program

Apply to be matched with a local resident or international visitor to share customs and spend time together! With your new friend, you can go for occasional meals, bike rides, walks, sports events, holiday celebrations and outings.

Global Connections Programs are open to all. Domestic/international students, scholars, partners, faculty and staff are all encouraged to attend!