POST COMPLETION OPTIONAL PRACTICAL TRAINING FOR UNDERGRADUATES
What is OPT?

OPT is an abbreviation for Optional Practical Training.

OPT is an optional benefit to F-1 status that allows F-1 students to take part in practical training full-time for one year after completing their program of study.
The most important thing to remember about OPT is Timing!

...but first
Eligibility

F-1 students are eligible when:

- Enrolled on a full-time basis for one full academic year (9 months) on the same SEVIS Record.
  - Includes RCL for final quarter.
- Training is directly related to the major field of study.
- All coursework required for degree is complete.
  - Not graduation date.
Successful course completion date = I-20 ending date

- Your completion date becomes your new I-20 program ending date.
- Your I-20 will likely get shortened.
- Your I-20 must end before the start date of OPT.
Timing of the OPT Process

1. Submit iGlobal request three-four months before you would like to begin work.
2. Submit complete application with supporting documents to USCIS
3. Stay in status while on OPT by reporting to https://iGlobal.ucdavis.edu
   • Check all the regulations about maintaining status here: http://siss.ucdavis.edu/students/current_students/employment/OPT-info.html
Optional Practical Training (OPT)

Optional Practical Training (OPT) is an employment benefit where for F-1 students can apply what they have learned in a degree program through off-campus employment after completion of all degree requirements. Employment approval takes at least 90 days.

How to Apply for OPT

1. Attend an OPT workshop or view the online OPT workshop.
2. Meet with your Academic Advisor(s) to discuss your degree completion.
3. Use the OPT Calculator to help you customize a timeline.
4. Submit this form to SISS along with:
   - USCIS I-765 form
   - I-94 Record
5. Your Graduate Coordinator or Academic Advisor will also have to electronically sign off on these forms.
   - Once you fill out all required forms, your Coordinator or Advisor will get an e-mail to complete their recommendations.
6. After your I-20 is issued, you need to mail a copy of the new I-20 recommending OPT along with the other required materials to USCIS.
• SISS recommends OPT. USCIS (United States Citizenship and Immigration Services) is the approval authority.

• Recommendation appears on page 2.
Best Practices:

• Part 1.a. Check Initial permission to Accept Employment if this is your first OPT.

Part 2. #5.a.: (in care of)
Put the name of a trusted friend if you think you will be moving during your pending application.

5.b. Address must be valid when EAD card is sent.

• #14. If you do not have an SSN you can request one here!
I-765 Form

Best Practices Continued:

- #24. and 25. Write F-1 Student
- #27. Write (C)(3)(B)
- Do not use commas.

Part 3

3. Telephone number
4. Mobile number
5. Email address

7.a. When signing, make sure your signature fits INSIDE the box; no touching any lines.

7.b. Date of Signature
What if I have had CPT or OPT in the past (at any school) or What if I have had more than 1 SEVIS number?

- Use Part 6. Additional Information to provide all previously used SEVIS numbers and evidence of any previously authorized CPT or OPT and the academic level at which it was authorized.

- If you need more space than what is provided in Part 6, you may make copies of Part 6. Type or print your name and A-Number (if any) at the top of each sheet; indicate the Page Number, Part Number, and Item Number to which your answer refers;

- and sign and date each sheet.
Preparing your OPT Application

- SISS will email you when your new I-20 is ready.
- Optional courtesy check when you pick it up.
- Copy all the pages of your new I-20 (keep the original).
- Provide copies of I-20’s with previously authorized CPT or OPT.
- Download and print a copy of your most recent I-94.
- Complete G-1145 (optional: USCIS will text you the official receipt number of your application).
- Copy your passport biographical page (with photo and expiration date).

*IMPORTANT 30 Day Rule: USCIS (United States Citizenship & Immigration Service) must receive your OPT application within 30 days of your SISS International Student Advisor’s recommendation date of OPT. Please refer to the date next to your advisor’s signature on page 1 your OPT I-20.

Choosing an OPT Start Date

You have a 60-day period from the program completion date to begin OPT.

Your OPT starting date can be as early as the day after your program ending date or any day up to 60 days after your program ending date.
OPT Timeline Calculator

Use the OPT Timeline Calculator to get customized information about:

- When to submit your OPT request to SISS
- When to submit your OPT application to USCIS
- When to expect a decision from USCIS
- When to expect to be able to begin working
- When you must begin working (will count maximum unemployment days*)
- How to stay in status during your OPT period

*Maximum allowed unemployment days = 90.

We recommend that you download and save this calculator for use as you work through the OPT process.
Using the OPT Timeline Calculator

- Enter Type of Degree, Program End Date and Contract information if you are working on campus (undergraduates rarely have contracts).

- The calculator will provide the start dates you can choose from and a recommended start date based on that day’s date.
1. Once you choose a start date, you will get customized information on when to apply to both SISS and USCIS.

2. Enter the issue date from your new I-20 in the blue box for customized mailing information.
OPT Timeline Calculator cont.

1. Sample timeline—if USCIS got your paperwork today
2. Unemployment end (date you must begin working by)
3. Your customized timeline for USCIS (fill in blue box)
4. How to stay in status while on OPT

---

Sample wait time for USCIS processing:
- If USCIS received your complete OPT application today, you could expect a decision in 1/12/2017.
- If USCIS started processing your application today, your EAD card may arrive approximately 26 days before your authorized employment period begins. Wait to begin employment until the start date.

Official processing status can be verified using the WAC number from the I-797C receipt notice.
- Official USCIS processing status website: https://egov.uscis.gov/casestatus/lair
- With the Employment Start Date you requested, your 90 days unemployment eligibility begins on 5/8/2017.

Customized Estimated timeline using the date from the I-797C receipt notice:
- Enter the date from I-797C Receipt from USCIS: 11/1/2016
- Expected completion of EAD card processing: 1/30/2017
- Estimated days of unemployment you will count before receiving your EAD card: 0

Stay in status by reporting all Employment and Address changes within 10 days.
- Report here: http://siss.ucdavis.edu/students/current_students/opt.cfm
- Submit a copy of your EAD card to SISS in person or via email at siss@ucdavis.edu
- Keep personal records of employment, hours, and how it is related to your major field.
A Few More Things...

You can only begin paid or unpaid training when:

- You have received your EAD (Employment Authorization Document) and

- The date of your authorized training period has begun (refer to the dates on your EAD card)
Employment is an extension of what you learned and must be directly to your major field of study.

Ways to Show Direct Relationship:

- Job Description
- Degree Required
- Coursework
- Ask a professor
- Document relationship
Review all information -- name, date of birth, validity dates -- for accuracy! If any information is incorrect you must contact USCIS right away!
Traveling

Once you have been apply for/been approved for OPT, you must have the following 5 items to return to the U.S.

1. Unexpired passport, valid for 6 months in the future.
2. Unexpired F-1 visa.
3. Most recent I-20 with a current travel signature
   • (travel signatures are only valid for 6 months on OPT).
4. I-797 receipt notice/EAD card*.
5. Proof of job/job search/training.

Risk of being denied entry for if entering without
*If you have your EAD card you MUST return with a job offer
What if I’m traveling and my visa has expired?

Bring all your travel documents and apply for an extension
What if I have to cancel OPT?

- SISS can cancel your OPT in SEVIS if you haven’t physically mailed your application.

- Once you have mailed your application, you cannot cancel your time or receive a refund.

- Please contact SISS right away if you find yourself in this situation!
What if I fail a class and don’t finish on time?

- If you have not mailed your OPT application, we can cancel it and you can apply after you finish your course.

- If you have mailed your OPT application:
  - You can finish your program (must take the classes you need the following quarter).
  - When you receive your EAD, you may work ONLY PART-TIME (20 hours or less per week) until you finish your coursework - even though the EAD card says you may work full-time (more than 20 hours per week).
  - Once you finish your coursework, you may switch to full-time training.
What if I get accepted to another degree program?

- While on OPT you are still an F-1 student based on a UC Davis I-20.

- If you start another degree program at UC Davis or another institution, your OPT will end when the day before your new degree program start date at UC Davis or the date we transfer your record to your new institution.
What about OPT Reporting?

You will not be able to report OPT until the first day of your OPT employment.
