ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS
WELCOME TO CALIFORNIA AND TO UC DAVIS!

Here in Global Affairs, we like to say we welcome the world to UC Davis.

This is in large part because we welcome students and scholars like you from more than 140 different countries with countless backgrounds and experiences.

Services for International Students and Scholars (SISS), within Global Affairs, is your main contact for visa and immigration matters, and can help you develop a home away from home here at UC Davis. We encourage you to make the most of your time at UC Davis and in California, which together offer tremendous academic, social, and recreational opportunities.

As we envision a UC Davis community that engages, thrives, and leads in this increasingly interconnected world, it is always exciting to see the new opportunities for all of us to learn from one another and discover new perspectives. We wish you the very best for a successful academic year and an enjoyable time exploring your new surroundings.

Please reach out to any one of us with questions or for guidance along the way. We hope to see you in the International Center or around UC Davis soon!

Sincerely,

JOANNA REGULSKA
Vice Provost and Associate Chancellor of Global Affairs
Professor of Gender, Sexuality and Women’s Studies

FADI FATHALLAH
Associate Vice Provost of Global Education and Services for Global Affairs
Professor of Biological and Agricultural Engineering

WESLEY YOUNG
Director of Services for International Students and Scholars within Global Affairs
PREPARING FOR UC DAVIS
Submit your Statement of Intent to Register (SIR) – yes!

Once you have received your Letter of Acceptance, you will need to submit your Statement of Intent to Register (SIR):

Undergraduate Students
- Follow the steps outlined for admitted students in MyAdmissions, log into myadmissions.ucdavis.edu
- For any questions you have about admissions, please contact the Office of Undergraduate Admissions at admissions@ucdavis.edu

Graduate Students
- Submit your Statement of Intent to Register (SIR) as directed by the Office of Graduate Studies: grad.ucdavis.edu
- Telling your new graduate program that you are coming to UC Davis won’t activate you as a student in the system

*Students admitted to professional school programs should follow the instructions provided by their school. Students admitted to the following programs should contact Michelle Baker in UC Davis Continuing and Professional Education at mabaker@ucdavis.edu. International English and Professional Programs, Global Study Program, GREAT Summer Research Program, Global University Access Program or other custom programs.

Pay the SEVIS Fee or Request a SEVIS Record Transfer

You must pay a SEVIS I-901 fee to obtain a visa, visit.fmjfee.com

Students already studying in the United States in F-1 or J-1 status must request that their current school transfer the SEVIS record to UC Davis

Apply for your Visa

For information about the visa process and what you need to come to UC Davis, check out: siss.ucdavis.edu

Follow the instructions on the website for the U.S. Embassy or Consulate where you will be applying: usembassy.gov

Additional information on visas can be found on the U.S. Department of State website: travel.state.gov

Look at Housing Options

First-year undergraduate students are guaranteed housing on campus, but other incoming students need to secure housing on their own.

Start searching early! For more information visit siss.ucdavis.edu

Register for Orientation

Orientation is mandatory and includes information about what international students are required to do to maintain lawful status in the U.S.

For more information about schedule of events, visit the orientation webpage: siss.ucdavis.edu/orientation

Request an I-20 or DS-2019 from Services for International Students and Scholars (SISS)

Beginning in April, you can request an I-20/DS-2019 from SISS through iGlobal at iglobal.ucdavis.edu
Do you have questions about registration or academic courses? There are international academic advisors in each college who are here to help you with:

- Degree and General Education requirements
- Course planning for your first year
- How to change majors
- Academic policies, regulations and petitions
- Options if you are having academic difficulty
- Advising holds that prevent course registration
- How the university grading system works and American classroom expectations
- Transfer credit for out-of-state courses, IB credit, A-level exams, etc.
- Resources on campus and any questions about academics at UC Davis

Pay Your International Student Administration and Orientation Fees

SISS charges a fee to all international students studying at UC Davis in F-1 or J-1 student status.

The fee helps to pay for the costs associated with orientation and advising provided by SISS and will appear in your UC Davis billing.

For information about the International Student Administrative Fee visit: siss.ucdavis.edu/fees-and-tuition

Check out the Pre-Arrival Guide

This guide is designed so international students can best understand academic responsibilities and meet important deadlines.

First-Year Undergraduate Students

All incoming first-year students under the age of 24 are guaranteed housing in residence halls on campus—Segundo, Tercero and Cuarto. Residence halls have different types of rooms (like singles for one person or double and triple occupancy rooms where you will have roommates) but each type has a bed, a wardrobe for clothes, and a desk with a lamp. All three housing areas have a Dining Common (DC), where meals are prepared and served. More information about first-year housing and meal plans can be found at ucdavis.edu/campus-life/housing

SECURING HOUSING

ATTENTION STUDENTS AND SCHOLARS!

Students, refer to the “Before Arriving to UC Davis Checklist for International Students” infographic on pages 6 and 7 for any information you may need about securing housing.

Scholars, once you have been admitted, you will work with many departments on campus to meet all the requirements necessary to do your work or research here at UC Davis. Information for J-1 scholars is available at siss.ucdavis.edu/j-1-arrival-checklist
What is a RESIDENT ADVISOR (RA)?

“I’m one of the many friendly RAs available to help you transition into college. RAs live with you in your communities and are here to answer any questions you may have about student life, where to find resources, and how to find your home away from home! Adjusting to college can seem difficult, but your RA is here to help you!”

Joyce Zamorano | Global Affairs Student Assistant

Transfer Students and EAP Students

You are not guaranteed housing in the residence halls and must secure your own place to live before you start classes. Check out the options and advice about renting on and off campus on pages 11 and 12, and don’t hesitate to ask us any questions at sissconnect@ucdavis.edu

Graduate Students and Scholars

It is a good idea to start looking for housing as early as possible. You can ask your graduate coordinators or your program contacts to assist you. For incoming graduates with families, consider how close schools and childcare will be to your home. For guides on how to find childcare and schools in Davis and surrounding areas, visit siss.ucdavis.edu/childcare-and-school-enrollment
On-Campus Housing

On-Campus Apartments

UC Davis offers family-friendly apartments on campus to transfer, graduate, and professional students. They have a variety of apartment communities, most unfurnished but equipped with full-size kitchens and include a refrigerator, stove and oven. More information about apartments at UC Davis can be found at housing.ucdavis.edu/apartments

Housing Cooperatives

There are two housing cooperatives on the UC Davis campus open to students. Housing Cooperatives value community involvement, so residents are often required to contribute to the upkeep of the house. Most cooperatives host weekly communal dinners and social activities for residents to get to know each other. To learn more about each housing cooperative you can go to housing.ucdavis.edu/graduate-and-professional-housing
Off-Campus Housing

Off-Campus Apartments

The City of Davis has a range of apartment complexes that vary in price depending on their proximity to campus. Depending on the apartment, some come with the option of being furnished. Typically, monthly rent covers some utilities (water, sewage and trash) but tenants must set-up and pay for gas, electricity and Wi-Fi. The rental agreement or lease is usually an 8-12 months contract and requires an initial security deposit that gets returned as long as the apartment is left without damages.

Houses

Houses in Davis offer a larger space and additional amenities like a private yard and a garage. Unlike apartments, some homeowners (landlords) may require the tenant to pay all utilities, while others may include it in the rent. Housing rental agreements usually require an initial security deposit, and the contract may be 3-12 months.

Room in a Shared House or Apartment

The residents of the City of Davis including homeowners, families, or a group of other students rent living accommodations by room. With this type of living arrangement, you can expect to share general spaces like the kitchen, living room, and bathroom.

Be sure you understand all the privileges and limitations a private home-owner may want before making any type of agreement.
Resources to Help with Your Housing Search

ASUCD Community Housing Listing

The Associated Students of UC Davis (ASUCD) maintains this online database of off-campus housing. You can find apartments, houses, rooms in a shared house or apartment and people looking for roommates through the list. Sign up at chl.ucdavis.edu

ASUCD also provides guidance through Housing Advising for Undergraduate Students (HAUS). Search for it on asucd.ucdavis.edu

SISS Housing Bulletin

The SISS housing bulletin is a weekly email with items for sale and available housing—both long-term and sublets (short term leases, usually a few weeks to a few months). Sign up at bit.ly/sissbulletin

Facebook

UC Davis students often use Facebook groups to look for roommates in a shared home or apartment. You’ll need a UC Davis email address to join the groups. Two of the most popular to search for are UC Davis Off-Campus Housing or Sublease & Short-Term Housing.
Rental Listing Scams

Scams are dishonest, illegal schemes to make money— one common type in Davis is rental listing scams. They usually begin with a housing opportunity that seems too good to be true. Scammers might list a vacancy ad on a reputable website, asking for a security deposit and first month’s rent in exchange for keys. Once the scammer secures the money, they disappear and the tenant is left with no place to live.

HOW TO AVOID SCAMS

- Avoid sending money in exchange for keys to see or rent a property
- Insist on meeting a landlord or property manager in person before signing a lease or paying any money
- Research the property and landlord before paying any money—ask for references, check property records, and read online reviews

For more information about housing, utilities and avoiding scams, visit siis.ucdavis.edu/housing
Getting to Orientation

There are different orientation schedules and requirements for incoming undergraduate students, graduate students, scholars and families. You can find information specific to your situation on our website.

Booking Accomodations

If you are arriving before the start of your rental agreement, it is best to find a place to stay for a few nights. The average nightly rate for hotel in Davis can be $100–$200, so be sure to book a room early!

Need help finding hotels in the area? Check out visityolo.com/Stay/Stay-Davis

When can I MOVE INTO STUDENT HOUSING?

First-year students planning to live in the residence halls or anyone moving into Student Housing Apartments during fall quarter can move in late-September.

Students moving in winter or spring quarter should contact Student Housing at studenthousing@ucdavis.edu
Getting to UC Davis From the Airport

From the San Francisco International Airport (SFO)

The San Francisco International Airport (SFO) is just over 80 miles (120 km) from UC Davis, which can take between 1 hour and 45 minutes to 2 hours and 30 minutes, depending on the time of day and traffic. We recommend using an app (like Waze, Google Maps, Apple Maps, etc.) to estimate travel time when deciding upon transportation options. If you are headed to a location in Sacramento from SFO, the distance is farther so Amtrak, taxi and ride sharing services will be slightly more expensive.

From Sacramento International Airport (SMF)

The Sacramento International Airport (SMF) is just over 20 miles (32 km) from UC Davis which can take between 25 minutes to 1 hour, depending on the time of day and traffic. Again, we recommend using an app (like Waze, Google Maps, Apple Maps, etc.) to estimate travel time when deciding upon transportation options. If you are headed to a location in Sacramento from SMF, the distance is shorter so taxi and ride sharing services will be less expensive; YoloBus will cost approximately the same amount.

CHECKED BAG

☐ Gifts that represent your culture
☐ Travel-size toiletries (for a week)
☐ Family photos (or other reminders of home)

CLOTHES
☐ Business casual
☐ Exercise clothes
☐ Shoes
☐ Swimsuit
☐ Undergarments
☐ Coat/jacket

PACKING TIPS
- Put any items you will need for the few days (like a change of clothes) in your carry-on bag in case your checked bag gets misrouted and arrives late.
- Do not bring customs-prohibited items (e.g., fresh fruit, meat).
- Do not put valuable items in your checked bag.
- Average temperatures in Davis (fall):
  - Daytime: 70-90°F (21-32°C)
  - Nighttime: 40-55°F (4.5-13°C)
- Davis has a rainy winter season.

☐ UC Davis gear

DAVIS TIP
During winter it tends to rain and flood.
Make sure to purchase a raincoat, rain boots and an umbrella.
The Davis Airporter

The Davis Airporter is a shared van service that will pick you up at the San Francisco International Airport or the Sacramento International Airport and deliver you to your address in Davis. You should make a reservation ahead of time, and you must call the service once you arrive at the airport to confirm. Learn more at davisairporter.com

Taxis and Ride Sharing Apps

On-demand taxi services are available at both airports, as are app-based ride sharing services like Lyft or Uber; both options are in private cars. Depending on the time of day you arrive and traffic conditions, travel time and cost will vary.

Public Transportation

BART/AMTRAK FROM SAN FRANCISCO

For a relatively inexpensive option, you can take BART (Bay Area Rapid Transit), a public transportation system serving the San Francisco Bay Area. BART takes you to the Amtrak station in Richmond, California which can transport you to Davis and Sacramento. Keep in mind—this option is complicated and often requires a longer travel time.

YOLOBUS FROM SACRAMENTO

YoloBus offers direct bus service from the Sacramento International Airport to UC Davis. Although inexpensive, this bus only comes once an hour, will not deliver you to a specific address in Davis and may not have space for extra baggage.

All of this is explained in detail on our website, at siss.ucdavis.edu/airport-transportation
YOU’RE HERE: NOW WHAT?
Buying Furniture or Supplies

If you're moving into residence halls or on-campus housing, they often come fully furnished, so you may not need to buy furniture, but you may need bedding or bathroom products. If you are living off campus, you will probably need more (the bed and the bedding).

There are many different types of stores, which we'll talk more about later. For furniture and housing supplies you'll want to go to a retailer.

Retail Outlets

Retail stores sell anything from bath and beauty supplies and clothes to furniture and homegoods or electronics, like laptops or televisions. Some stores sell it all, others specialize in a specific type of good. Check their websites before you go to make sure they have what you need.
Setting up Utilities and Services for Off-Campus Housing

Tenants are typically asked to pay for internet and electricity in addition to their rent. For more information about housing, utilities and avoiding scams, visit siss.ucdavis.edu/housing

Electricity

Pacific Gas & Electric (PG&E) provides both natural gas and electricity in Davis. To set up an account or find out more about cost, check out: pge.com

Internet

There are a few options for internet providers in Davis. To find reliable service in your area and compare costs, check out: inmyarea.com/internet

GETTING IT HOME:

Furniture and supplies are heavy! Do not plan to get everything back to your housing on a bicycle. Some retailers may offer delivery for a fee. If you are able to rent a car or truck, moving will be easier, but there are strict requirements for driving in California. Check out the Planes, Trains and Automobiles (and also Bikes) section on page 28 for options.
Grocery Stores

In grocery stores you’ll find fresh produce, dairy, meats and non-perishable food. They also sell a variety of drinks, and some grocery stores have their own section of freshly baked goods. Most have toiletries and a limited supply of household products, but they may be more expensive than at other retail outlets.

Great GROCERIES:

“Trader Joe’s has the best variety of quality groceries for the best prices. Even better, their Davis store is really close to campus and their website offers free recipes.”

Bonnie Shea | Director of Communications for Global Affairs
Cultural Grocery Stores

There is an “ethnic” food section in most grocery stores, but the selection can be rather limited. If you’re cooking a meal from home, you may need to visit a cultural grocery store to find the ingredients you need. The graphic on the previous page groups stores by type and color codes by location.

Davis Farmers Market

The Davis Farmers Market is an open-air market held Saturday mornings year-round and Wednesday evenings, hours vary by season. It is held at Central Park (Fourth and C Streets) and is a great place to buy fresh fruits and vegetables, fresh baked goods, flowers, and more. For more information, check out davisfarmersmarket.org

Best place to PICNIC:

“I love sitting out on the grass and having a picnic in Central Park at the Davis Farmers’ Market on Wednesday night from March-October. It feels like the whole town is out there, there’s always live music and you can buy dinner there or bring your own!”

Jennifer Wade | Communications and Development Manager for Global Affairs

SOME COMMON GROCERY STORES

• Grocery Outlet
• Davis Food Co-Op
• Nugget Market
• Safeway
• Trader Joe’s
Pharmacies

Pharmacies are retail establishments where you can get your prescription medications, find over-the-counter medicine and receive limited medical services, like a flu shot. Similar to supermarkets, pharmacies sell some household items, baby-care supplies, beauty and personal care products, and usually have packaged snack food and drinks.

SOME COMMON PHARMACIES

- Walgreens
- CVS Pharmacy
- Rite Aid

(Also available in some Walmarts and Targets)
Online Marketplace

Not everyone coming to UC Davis will have a car, or access to a car, and public transportation can make shopping difficult. Ordering products online—especially furniture—can cost more because of shipping, but may be easier for some students and scholars without transportation.

Amazon@ UC Davis

Amazon is an online marketplace that sells a wide range of products, like food and furniture, or household items and electronics. Amazon Lockers are self-serve kiosks where you can have Amazon orders securely delivered and held for you on campus to pick up when convenient. For more information, check out memorialunion.ucdavis.edu/amazonuc-davis

Facebook

Community members and students from UC Davis sell used goods like furniture, bikes and electronics on Facebook. It can be useful to find discounted and low-cost daily use items but you’ll usually have to find a way to pick up the items. Check out this list of popular Facebook groups: bit.ly/UCDFacebookGroups
Sending and Receiving Mail

Post Office

Post Offices are operated by the U.S. Postal Service (USPS). You can buy stamps or send and receive packages larger than an envelope.

Fed-Ex and UPS

Fed-Ex and UPS offer packing, shipping, and printing services. They are a little more expensive than the U.S. Postal Service, and offer a full range of international shipping services. For more information, visit fedex.com or theupsstore.com

Mailing Options

U.S. mail is delivered Monday–Saturday (except holidays), campus mail is delivered Monday–Friday. If you live on campus, the service centers have a designated area for outgoing mail. There is an on-campus mail box that takes outgoing mail in front of the Memorial Union. For more information, visit housing.ucdavis.edu/mail-and-packages

If you live off-campus, check with your apartment complex if they have a designated area for outgoing mail. If you’re in a house, be sure there is a safe place to receive packages or seek another pick-up location.
PLANES, TRAINS, AND AUTOMOBILES (AND ALSO BIKES)

Buses

Unitrans

Unitrans is a bus that runs on campus and through the city of Davis. Rides are free for UC Davis undergraduate students with student ID; the fare is $1.25 per ride for all others. Multi-ride passes are available for purchase; for more information, go to unitrans.ucdavis.edu

YoloBus

Rides on Yolobus are free with a UC Davis undergraduate student ID. The Yolobus goes to West Sacramento, the Sacramento International Airport (SMF) and the nearby town of Woodland and runs late on weekends, while Unitrans does not. Fares are listed on their website, at yolobus.com

The Davis Berkeley Shuttle

The intercampus bus service provides transportation between UC Davis and UC Berkeley for faculty, staff and registered students. Tickets are only $12, buy online at berkbus.ucdavis.edu
Intercampus Shuttle

The UC Davis–UC Davis Medical Center Shuttle provides transportation between campuses in Davis and Sacramento Monday–Friday. Tickets are $1.50 each way and must be purchased in advance. For details search taps.ucdavis.edu

Trains

Amtrak

Amtrak is the national train service in the United States. From the Davis station, you can get to other parts of California, including the San Francisco Bay Area and Los Angeles. It’s also possible to take Amtrak to cities like Portland, OR and Seattle, WA or even across the country to Chicago, IL. You can check fares and buy tickets online, at amtrak.com

BART (Bay Area Rapid Transit)

BART is a rail system that can get you around the San Francisco Bay Area, or to and from the San Francisco International Airport (SFO) but does not come all the way to Davis. The closest station is in Antioch, CA but you can check their website for routes, at bart.gov
Bicycles

Where can I get a bicycle?

Bicycles (bikes) are the most popular way to get around Davis, but there are different kinds like road bikes, mountain bikes and cruisers. Need help figuring out which bike is right for you? Check out localwiki.org/davis/Bicycles

There are a few options for incoming students and scholars new to the city.

1) You can rent a bike, short term or long term: localwiki.org/davis/Renting_a_Bike
   There are also Jump Bikes available around town for very short-term rental (a few hours). They have a student plan that is $30 for the first year. You can book and pay through their mobile app, or go to jump.com

2) You can buy a used bike, which is usually cheaper but it may have some damage from use. There are options for used bikes online, on sites such as facebook.com/groups/bikesforsaledavis, or sacramento.craigslist.org
   Alternatively, abandoned and unclaimed bicycles are sold through publicly-held auctions, in October and early May. For more information, go to taps.ucdavis.edu/bicycle/auctions

3) You can buy a new bike at a retail outlet like Target or Walmart, but you will find better quality bicycles at a dedicated shop. For more information, go to localwiki.org/davis/Bicycle_Shops
Are there rules for bicycle riders?

Most students, staff, and faculty ride bicycles because they are convenient, inexpensive, and fun. It is important to learn how to be safe when cycling in Davis and to know and follow the rules. Bicycles are considered vehicles under California law, and riders must follow the same traffic safety laws they would when driving, like signaling turns and stops. Riders should always yield when entering a bike circle, signal when exiting a roundabout, and remember that pedestrians have the right of way in crosswalks. For more information about bicycle safety check out taps.ucdavis.edu/bicycle/education

Do I need a license to ride a bicycle?

All bikes on the UC Davis campus must have a current California Bicycle License. Bicycle registration is not strictly enforced but may be helpful if your bicycle is stolen. You can register your bike with UC Davis Transportation Services (TAPS) for $12. For more information, check out taps.ucdavis.edu/bicycle/licenses

Where can I get my bicycle fixed?

Struggling with a flat tire, rusty chain, or loose brakes? All across campus, you will find self-service bicycle repair stations. Any bicycle shop in town offers repair services, check prices before you go. The Bike Barn on campus provides repairs at low costs. Check out their website at bikebarn.ucdavis.edu
Ride Sharing

Don’t have a car and don’t feel like taking the bus or riding your bicycle? Sometimes you can find other people on campus looking for a passenger:

Check the Facebook Group: facebook.com/groups/UCDavisRideSharing
Or try Zimride: zimride.com/ucdavis

Mobile apps

On-demand transportation is available most places through an app on your mobile device. It is more expensive than public transportation, but fast and convenient.

Uber: uber.com
Lyft: lyft.com

“A great way to get around WITHOUT A CAR:

“Facebook’s Rideshare group has been amazing in helping me find reliable and cheap transportation provided by other students to destinations like Los Angeles and San Francisco and so many other places!”

Emily Mijangos | Global Affairs Student Assistant
Specialized Ride Services

For individuals with disabilities

The Mobility Assistance Shuttle provides on-campus rides to specified locations for academic or work-related purposes. Only UC Davis students, staff and faculty members with documented disabilities are eligible. Rides are on a first-come-first-served basis and must be scheduled at least 24 hours in advance. To schedule a ride, call (530) 754-2677 or visit taps.ucdavis.edu/parking/mas

Wheelchair accessible service is offered at no charge through the UC Davis Police Department’s SafeRides Program

Safe Rides with the UC Davis Police

Alone on campus and not feeling safe? Safe Ride offers night-time rides from any campus location to any location in Davis. During other hours they provide a ride or walking escort between locations on campus. Call (530) 754-COPS (2677) or visit police.ucdavis.edu/safe-rides

Cars and Driving

Can I drive legally in California?

You can use your home country driver’s license if it is valid, but only for the first few months that you are in the U.S. You cannot drive in California with an International Driving Permit. To get a California Driver License, you must pass both a written exam and a driving exam at the Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV). If taking a driving exam, you must make an appointment prior to arriving at the Davis DMV.
DON’T WANT TO DRIVE? YOU’LL NEED PERSONAL IDENTIFICATION (ID)

It is important for you to carry some form of ID (with your photograph, name, address, and date of birth). You need an ID when you cash a check, open a bank account, register your car, etc. Your passport has this information, but it is not wise to carry it with you on a daily basis because it may be lost or stolen.

You will not be able to drive with only a California ID card, you need a California Driver License.

Where can I
GET A CALIFORNIA DRIVER LICENSE?

The Davis DMV is located at the intersection of 5th St. and Pole Line Rd. The A, P, or Q lines of Unitrans will get you there. If you plan to own a vehicle while living in Davis, you must register your vehicle with the DMV and state law requires auto insurance for all vehicles. You can get information about how to buy and register a vehicle online. Find all the information you need at dmv.ca.gov

Your California Driver License can serve as valid form of identification—you do NOT need to obtain both a California Driver License and a California ID card.

Parking on Campus

Transportation and Parking Services (TAPS) sells campus parking permits and is the office to contact if receive a parking citation on campus. Find out more at taps.ucdavis.edu
Renting a car

To rent a car in the U.S., usually you must be over 21, but some companies require you to be at least 25 years old. If you’re using your home country driver’s license, you will likely be asked to show your passport, too. Insurance for your rental car can be confusing, but is very important, so do research ahead of time, or ask about options when renting. Check and see which companies rent in Davis: localwiki.org/davis/Car_Rental

What are CAR SHARES?

There are a few car-sharing services in Davis and Sacramento. Car sharing allows you to sign up through an app, rent a car, and pay for only the time you use—by the minute, hour or day. You will need a valid driver’s license. For more information, visit gigcarshare.com or zipcar.com
How Do I Open a U.S. Bank Account?

When living off-campus in a house or apartment, it is usually required that you pay the property manager with a written check. If you prefer, you may be able to open a U.S account while still doing your primary banking with your home account. When opening up a new account, international students and scholars will generally need documentation that proves their identity and residence in the local area, such as their passport, I-20 or DS-2019, and a lease agreement or utility bill.

MONEY MATTERS
for International Students and Scholars

CONSIDERATIONS WHEN CHOOSING A BANK

Branch locations – nationwide availability or primarily local
ATM locations – on or close to campus, or close to where you live
Can your home country bank access your U.S. account?

WHAT TO BRING WHEN OPENING A BANK ACCOUNT

- Money to deposit
- Your passport
- Printout of Form I-94 (arrival/departure record) or I-94 card
- Form I-20 (F-1 student) or Form DS-2019 (J-1 exchange visitor)
- Local mailing address (one of the below):
  - Signed lease agreement
  - Utility bill

BANKING TIPS

Using credit and debit cards is very common in the U.S.

Some businesses may require a minimum purchase amount in order to use cards, otherwise there may be a small additional fee

Some businesses may be cash-only

When using a credit card, some businesses may ask for I.D.

For safety reasons, do not carry large amounts of cash ($50+)
FORMS OF PAYMENT

DEBIT CARD
• You can pay for goods and services directly from your bank account
• The amount you have in your bank account is the maximum amount you can pay for using your debit card
• It is NOT a credit card

CHECKS
• You can pay bills (typically rent and utilities) with personal checks

CASHIER’S CHECKS
• Check drawn from bank’s own funds, signed by a cashier or teller, so the bank guarantees payment
• Can be obtained from most banks and credit unions
• Usually used for large purchases such as a car, or putting down a deposit for an apartment or house rental

CREDIT CARD
• Discuss with your bank first about getting a credit card
• Most international students and scholars may find it difficult to get a U.S. credit card because they have not established a credit history
• Credit history –
  • You can establish by paying your rent and bills on time, not overdrawning your bank account. Use a third-party company (like RentTrack.com or RentReporters.com) to verify that you’re paying rent on time. Late or missed payments and overdrafts may negatively affect your credit score.
  • You can try to get a secured credit card if you are having difficulty obtaining a regular credit card
    • Beware of the APR (interest) rate, which can be very high (22%+)
    • You may receive mail about applying for credit cards

MONEY ORDERS
• Pre-paid amount of money that is guaranteed by a third party, like the post office, Walmart, or Western Union
• Can be obtained at Walmart, U.S. Postal Service (USPS), banks and credit unions, convenience stores, supermarkets, drug stores/pharmacies (Walgreens, Rite Aid, CVS, etc.)

WIRE TRANSFERS
• Method of transferring funds from one bank account to another
• Wire transfers typically take 2-5 business days
• Have your U.S. bank details on hand when you are arranging a wire transfer
• Be careful of scams when using a wire transfer; they are untraceable once sent and not refundable

AUTOMATED TELLER MACHINES (ATMS)
• Use ATMs affiliated with your bank as much as possible, otherwise you will be charged extra fees
• Must use a debit card at ATMs to withdraw cash
• Can also deposit checks at ATMs
• Your bank will have a limit on how much cash you can withdraw from an ATM per day
What’s the Difference Between a Bank and a Credit Union?

Both banks and credit unions let you open a checking or savings or account, but fees and interest rates can vary depending on the institution you pick. Credit unions are different because they are non-profit organizations and you must be a member. Check with the Davis banks and credit unions to find the best option for you. It is also a good idea to talk to your bank in your home country to see if they have a partnership or affiliation with a bank in the U.S. Sometimes this can make handling your money easier.

Where can I GET CASH AND EXCHANGE MONEY?

Exchanging money can become very expensive with interest rates or fees. Our advice is to withdraw money directly from any U.S. ATM to avoid excessive fees. If you use a debit card from home, let your bank know that you will be using it in the United States. There may be a fee—many ATMs charge a nominal fee for withdrawal if your debit card is not affiliated with their bank. Not all U.S. banks accept foreign ATM cards.
Money Transfer Apps

Some businesses or individuals use mobile apps to send or receive payment. It is not as secure as using your bank, but it is fast and convenient.

Venmo

An app that links to your bank account or your debit card to your Venmo account in order to make or request payments with other Venmo users. Money received through Venmo can be transferred back to your bank, but Venmo can only be linked to U.S. mobile numbers and U.S. bank accounts and can only be set up from inside the U.S. Check it out at venmo.com

Paypal

An online payment system where you can send and receive payments from other PayPal users. You can also buy from online retailers using PayPal account. PayPal offers secure payment exchanges to prevent fraudulent transactions. Check it out at paypal.com

Who has to pay taxes and when should you file?

Every international student or scholar in the U.S. is required to file a tax return as a condition of your visa, but not everyone will pay taxes to the American government. According to the requirements of the Internal Revenue Service (IRS)—a federal government agency—all international students and scholars should plan to declare their income (or lack of income) to the federal government every year in April by filing a tax return.

At the beginning of each year, you might receive documents—usually by mail—that are used to calculate any tax responsibility you may have for earnings during the previous calendar year (January-December). You will need to determine and file any taxes, so check out siss.ucdavis.edu/financial/general-tax-information

HOW TO GET HELP WITH TAXES

Taxes can be confusing, even for those who have lived in the U.S. for a long time. SISS provides access to tax software and trained tax professionals through GLACIER Tax Prep, for Federal taxes only. It is your decision on whether to use this service or to find your own resources.
TAKING CARE OF YOURSELF
Where Can Students Go On Campus For Medical or Health Needs?

UC Davis Student Health and Counseling Services (SHCS) provides a wide variety of medical, mental health, and wellness services to all registered UC Davis students, regardless of insurance coverage. Most routine medical and mental health services are provided through scheduled appointments; urgent care is available without appointment during normal hours of operation. Contact SHCS at (530) 752-2349 to make an appointment or to access Advice Nurses at any time. Learn more at shcs.ucdavis.edu

What are ADVICE NURSES?

Advice nurses are a complimentary service with most health plans. You can call in to talk to a registered nurse about non-urgent health questions. They will give advice or recommendations and schedule an appointment for you if needed.
Do I Need to Buy Health Insurance?

UC Davis students are required to have health insurance coverage that is valid in the U.S. All registered students are automatically enrolled in the UC Student Health Insurance Plan (UC SHIP), with fees billed to the student account, so be sure to visit shcs.ucdavis.edu/insurance-services. If you are already covered by a health insurance plan, you can waive enrollment in UC SHIP by submitting a waiver application. There is a deadline to say no to UC SHIP—you must submit the waiver form before the start of each new academic year shcs.ucdavis.edu/insurance/waiver

Scholars and families

- Immigration regulations require J-1 scholars and their J-2 family members to carry medical insurance for the duration of their program. Learn more at siss.ucdavis.edu/health-insurance-j-1
- Scholars employed by UC Davis may receive health benefits through UC Davis. Scholars with postdoctoral scholar position titles will enroll in the Postdoctoral Scholar Benefits Plan. Learn more at siss.ucdavis.edu/health-insurance-postdoctoral-scholars

  In these two cases, scholars should check with their UC Davis department if they have questions about health benefits.

- Scholars who are not employed by UC Davis or do not hold a postdoctoral scholar position title must purchase health insurance on their own for themselves and their family. More information can be found at siss.ucdavis.edu/health-insurance

You can call the UC Davis Police emergency number if you are on campus: (530) 752-1230

A NOTICE FOR STUDENTS

An I-20 or DS-2019 travel signature is NOT an emergency. Fill out the form in iGlobal and we will mail it to you if necessary.

Health and Wellness Services

Students

SHCS has a variety of wellness services to help you stay healthy and combat stress, like massage therapy, acupuncture, nutrition advice, physical therapy, and ways to quit smoking. There is also a Therapy Fluffies program—each quarter around midterms students can pet and play with dogs to calm down. Learn more at shcs.ucdavis.edu/wellness
WHERE CAN I GET NUTRITION OR DIET ADVICE?

SHCS has an in-house Registered Dietitian that provides nutrition therapy for a variety of health issues including weight management, diabetes, heart disease, eating disorders and gastro-intestinal disturbances. Services are free for SHIP students, $15 non-SHIP students. Learn more about a nutritionist at shcs.ucdavis.edu/services/nutrition-services

WHO CAN I TALK TO IF I AM FEELING OVERWHELMED OR NEED GUIDANCE?

SHCS offers counseling services to help students realize their academic and personal goals. Meeting with a counselor can help students clarify issues, explore options, and cope with problems more effectively. They provide free, confidential, short-term counseling in both individual and group settings to all registered UC Davis students. Learn more at shcs.ucdavis.edu/counseling-services

FEELING STRESSED OR OVERWHELMED?

IN CRISIS?

Help is a text away. You can talk to a trained counselor about anything you need to through the crisis text line—it's free, immediate, confidential, and available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

Is there support available for survivors of harassment or assault?

Center for Advocacy, Resources and Education (CARE) provides confidential advocacy, support, and healing services to survivors of sexual harassment and all forms of sexual violence, including sexual assault, intimate partner violence, and stalking. Their services are available for both students and scholars. You can reach them at care.ucdavis.edu

UC Davis offers several different confidential resources for victims of sexual violence, like CARE, the Women’s Resource and Research Center (WRRC), and the Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Queer, Intersex, Asexual (LGBTQIA) Resources Center. If you want to maintain as much control over your situation as possible, we recommend contacting the CARE or one of the other campus confidential resources (like the WRRC) for advice and support. These offices are not required to report incidents of sexual violence or harassment to the university. Learn more at sexualviolence.ucdavis.edu/get-support

Is There a Safe Space To Talk?

The Ombuds Office helps the UC Davis community solve problems that range from overcoming simple, practical difficulties to handling sensitive, complex issues, including cultural misunderstandings, interpersonal difficulties, and health and safety concerns. Learn more at ombuds.ucdavis.edu
Safety and The Law

Alcohol and Tobacco

In the U.S., the minimum drinking age is 21. Consuming alcohol before turning 21 is illegal and could result in legal action. Drunk driving is also a serious criminal offense that could be a consequence of misusing alcohol and can result in high fines, jail time, and having your driver’s license suspended. For international students and scholars, legal trouble could affect your visa status and could even result in your visa being revoked.

Under California law, you must be 21 years of age or older to purchase any tobacco products (including smokeless tobacco and electronic smoking devices). Additionally, UC Davis is a smoke and tobacco free campus.

Drugs

Cannabis (marijuana) is legal in California for adults 21 years of age and older, however use or possession of marijuana is illegal under federal law. Immigration laws reflect standards of federal law. You can be deported or barred from entry into the U.S. for evidence of cannabis use or planned cannabis use. When you enter the U.S. at an airport or border, your social media accounts, texts, and email are all subject to search. Evidence of cannabis use (such as photos or texts to friends about buying or using) can be reason enough for agents to refuse entry. Please use extreme caution when joking about drug use or illegal activity on your social media accounts, texts, or phone.

University of California policy prohibits cannabis on campus and in campus housing at all times.
UC DAVIS WARNME

If there is an emergency on campus or in the area, WarnMe will tell you the nature of the emergency, provide instruction and refer you to a source for more information. WarnMe uses faculty and staff work contact information from the university’s directory as well as student’s UC Davis email addresses to send alerts. Students and scholars should sign up at warnme.ucdavis.edu.

How To Report a Crime

In an emergency when you need immediate assistance, please call 911 or the UC Davis Police Department at (530) 752-1230 (Davis), or (916) 734-2555 (Sacramento).

For other crimes—like theft, vandalism, lost passport—the UC Davis Police Department has an online system that allows you to submit a report and print a copy of your preliminary report. Learn more at police.ucdavis.edu/online-crime-reporting

If you experience or witness an incident of hate or bias or discrimination or harassment, please report it. You can also do it anonymously if you choose reportthatandebias.ucdavis.edu
How can I PREVENT SCAMS OR FRAUD?

Scams are dishonest, illegal schemes to make money. We hope you will never be contacted by someone attempting to “scam” or defraud you of your money, but unfortunately, there are people who attempt to take advantage of international students and scholars. Learn how to identify a scam and avoid falling victim to the scheme: siss.ucdavis.edu/scams

What Are Driving Infractions?

If you receive a traffic ticket for a moving violation such as driving above the speed limit or running a red light, it is helpful to know your rights. Learn more at siss.ucdavis.edu/government-legal-resources

If you owe money or want to challenge a ticket, it is important to respond quickly within the dates stipulated on the ticket. Your insurance rates may go up for any infractions for which you are found guilty. Learn more at courts.ca.gov/8452.htm
SISS supports incoming and current international students and scholars and their families with visa and immigration issues. In addition to preparing the necessary documents to apply for a U.S. visa, SISS supports international students and scholars in maintaining their legal status and accessing benefits for their status while here. All international students and scholars have SISS advisors; more information about advising appointments and student drop-in hours is located on our website.

How Can I Talk To an SISS Advisor?

Advising Appointments

You may schedule an appointment with an advisor Monday through Thursday from 9 a.m.–12 p.m. and 1 p.m.–4 p.m. Please make an appointment by visiting the SISS front desk or by calling (530) 752-0864, extension 0.
Drop-In Advising

Students can see an advisor during our drop-in periods ("drop-in" means you don’t need an appointment). These meetings are reserved for quick issues that should take no more than 10 minutes. Advisors help students with issues on a first come, first-served basis.

Location: 3rd floor of the International Center
SISS Hours: Monday through Friday, 9 a.m.–12 p.m. and 1 p.m.–4 p.m.
Drop-in Hours: Mondays and Thursdays, 1 p.m.–3:45 p.m.

You are encouraged to call, email, make an appointment, or come to drop-in hours when needed.

All undergraduate F-1 and J-1 international first-year, transfer, and exchange students will be required to enroll in the SISS Online Extended Orientation program through Canvas, the university’s online learning platform. Extended Orientation helps international students new to UC Davis understand the complex relationship between their immigration status requirements and university policies in order to maintain good status in both areas. The course is available approximately three weeks after school begins and must be finished prior to Thanksgiving break. There is no fee for the program. You will receive enrollment instructions through your UC Davis email.
How Does U.S. Grading Work?

UC Davis has two types of grading systems. One is based on letter grading and the other is a pass or no pass grading system. At the end of each academic quarter, the letter grades will be assigned a grade point and will be used to calculate your Grade Point Average (GPA). Your GPA is numeric evaluation of your academic performance at Davis. GPAs are often used when applying for jobs, scholarships and academic programs.

Students are given a letter grade between A and F. If you receive an A, it has a grade score of 4 and is considered excellent. The letter grade B has a grade score of 3 and is considered good. The letter grade C is considered fair and has a grade score of 2. Letter grades D or F are considered unsatisfactory, they have a grade score of 1 and 0. Depending on your major, you may be required to repeat them. The second grading system gives a Pass or No Pass instead of a letter grade (P/NP). Some classes are only offered on a P/NP basis.
What is the QUARTER SYSTEM?

The school year is split into three quarters, fall, winter and spring. Each quarter is 10 weeks long, followed by a week reserved for final exams. On average, students take 3-4 courses a quarter, depending on the level of difficulty. There are also two six-week summer sessions for students looking to get ahead or stay on track.

Should I Go To Instructor Office Hours?

Instructors schedule 2-3 hours a week throughout the quarter to meet with students. Office hours are a great opportunity to ask about class material and get guidance on what to review before exams. It’s a good way to get to know the professor, learn about research opportunities and get career advice. Office hours are listed on the syllabus, but can change depending on the professor’s schedule.
Are There Any Classes or Programs To Help Me Adjust To School?

Foundations for Success for International Students

This course is designed to help international students adapt to UC Davis and American life. It is an optional year-long series of seminars for new international students offered by the School of Education and Services for International Students and Scholars (SISS). Topics include: academic expectations, quarter system, American cultural celebrations, academic writing rules, conduct expectations, culture shock, friendships, campus involvement, and time management. (The class is 2 units, Pass/No Pass grading.)

First-Year Seminars

First-Year Seminars are small, innovative classes that reflect the instructor’s intellectual interests. Limited to 19 students each, these courses promote intellectual exchange, critical thinking, and community about exciting topics ranging from honey bees to zombies to stinky cheese. Sign up at fys.ucdavis.edu

First-Year Aggie Connections

All incoming first-year and transfer students can participate in the First-Year Aggie Connections (FYAC) program. A Connection is a group of 25 students with a common interest or theme and provides an opportunity to have an immediate, small support network among a large student body. Each Connection has a staff or faculty facilitator along with a peer mentor who helps first-year students transition to UC Davis campus culture. Learn more at success.ucdavis.edu/centers-and-programs/aggie-connect
Global Ambassador Mentorship Program

This program helps incoming first-year and transfer international students successfully transition to life at UC Davis. Global Ambassadors are undergraduate students that act as mentors and, most importantly, as friends to help new international students excel in their new lives as UC Davis students. Participants, or mentees, will be able to share their culture and values with their mentor and receive support from them. Through this community of cultural exchange and by participating in our social events that the Global Ambassadors offer, new students will develop close connections with new friends and feel at home in their new community. Become a mentor or mentee at siss.ucdavis.edu/global-ambassador-mentors

Pal Program

The Pal Program pairs undergraduate students for intercultural conversation. Meetings with a partner can be used to practice language, explore campus and enrich your college experience. Join today at iae.ucdavis.edu/undergraduate/pal
Academic Assistance and Tutoring

Academic Assistance and Tutoring (AAT) provides academic support to undergraduate students enrolled in biology, chemistry, economics, mathematics, physics, statistics, and writing across the disciplines. Professional staff offer classes, workshops, and office hours. In addition, there are undergraduate tutors that provide drop-in service for students enrolled in math, science, and writing across the discipline courses. Get help at success.ucdavis.edu
Academic and Staff Assistance Program

The Academic and Staff Assistance Program offers confidential, cost-free counseling services including assessment, intervention, consultation, and referral services to all UC Davis and UC Davis Health faculty, staff, and their immediate families. Find out more at hr.ucdavis.edu/departments/asap

UC Davis Language Center

The UC Davis Language Center (DLC), located on the bottom floor of Olson Hall, is the central support site for language teaching, testing, learning, and research. The Center maintains specialized, media-equipped classrooms and computer laboratories available for instructors and students. Learn more at ucdlc.ucdavis.edu

Graduate Academic Advising

All international graduate students have Graduate Coordinators specifically assigned to them depending on field of study. International students can find the contact information for their coordinator on the UC Davis Graduate Programs website. Graduate Coordinators will help you to understand and navigate UC Davis policies relevant to your department and work with your SISS International Student Advisor regarding your F-1 benefits.

Student Disability Center

The Student Disability Center receives all requests for reasonable accommodations, approves disability related services, and coordinates support for students with disabilities to ensure equal access to the university’s educational programs. Learn more at sdc.ucdavis.edu
Resident Hall Advising

The Residence Hall Advising Team (RHAT) is comprised of peer advisors from the college dean offices and the First-Year Experience Program in Student Housing. RHAT provides academic advising to students in the residence halls through Academic Advising Centers and academic programs in each living area: Segundo, Tercero, and Cuarto. RHAT provides drop-in advising to help students plan their course schedules, talk about major interests and options, discuss academic progress, and much more. Tutoring in math, chemistry, and writing is also available in the Academic Advising Centers. Learn more at rhat.ucdavis.edu

Success Coaching and Learning Strategies

Whether you are a first-year transitioning to our research university and the quarter system, or a fourth year wanting to maximize your last year and prepare for what’s next, the Office of Educational Opportunity and Enrichment Services has workshops and trainings that can help you reach your goals. Their workshops cover time management, academic skills, and life skills topics. Learn more at opportunity.ucdavis.edu/services/scls

WHAT CAN YOU DO WITH YOUR MAJOR?

UC Davis has a blog written by students, staff, faculty and alumni that will help you learn about college majors and what kind of careers you can pursue with them! Check out ucdavis.edu/majors/blog
Frequently Asked QUESTIONS

HOW DO I CHOOSE MY CLASSES?
Schedule Builder is the class planning and registration tool available through the myucdavis portal that allows you to search, build class schedules and register for classes, all in one place. You need your kerberos ID and password to log-in, at registrar.ucdavis.edu/registration/schedule

WHERE CAN I BUY MY BOOKS?
There are many places to buy or rent textbooks, like the UC Davis Textbook Marketplace Facebook group or Amazon. UC Davis Stores can help you find the textbooks you need, explain textbook rentals and buybacks, and makes navigating course materials easier. Culture, Food, and Outdoor Adventures

Davis, Sacramento and the surrounding areas boast a fair amount of history and culture—from museums and movie theatres to world class bike trails and delicious restaurants. There is too much to list it all, but our staff and students have some of their favorite recommendations for you!

• For ideas in Davis, search The Davis Enterprise, The California Aggie, or the UC Davis Calendar
• For things to do in Sacramento, check out sacramento365.com
• For restaurant reviews and recommendations, visit yelp.com

BIG SCREEN, SMALL PRICE:

“Movies at the Regal theaters in Davis are $5.95 all day on Tuesdays, if you have a Regal card and a student ID! The lines may be a little long, but the wait is almost always worth it.”

Rebecca Spin | Global Affairs Student Assistant
HISTORY IN OLD SACRAMENTO

“For a great glimpse at California and U.S. history, go to the California State Railroad Museum in Old Sacramento (easy bus and train connection). Lots of replicas and knowledgeable guides.”

Robb Davis | Director of Intercultural Programs for Global Affairs

TACO TUESDAY

“You have to check out Cantina Alley in midtown Sacramento. It has some of the best Mexican food in all of Sacramento at such low prices you will never leave hungry and unsatisfied! It is Mexican street food at its finest.”

Mary Aluwar | International Scholar Advisor for SISS within Global Affairs

A TASTE OF AUSTRIA IN DAVIS

“For some excellent pastries, head out of downtown and along 5th street to Konditorei Bakery. A charming Austrian café with delicious European espresso and pastries hidden between apartment buildings...it’s easy to miss if you’re not actively seeking it out!”

Dana Armstrong | Program Coordinator and Advisor for Study Abroad within Global Affairs

SATISFYING A SWEET TOOTH

“Do you love desserts? Have I got the place for you in downtown Sacramento. Make sure to check out Rick’s Dessert Diner. Nothing but delicious desserts! The options are endless to satisfy your sweet tooth!”

EVENTS AND OPPORTUNITIES

At Global Affairs, we welcome the world to UC Davis. Part of that means helping our international students and scholars create a home away from home. There are a number of events and opportunities on campus and throughout the region to help you find your community and enjoy your time here.

The Global Learning Hub

Studying in the U.S. is just one of the many global experiences you can have while at UC Davis. Through the Global Learning Hub within Global Affairs, every UC Davis student can find global learning opportunities on campus, in the region, and in communities locally and around the world—through academic courses on campus or abroad, community service, internships, research, student clubs, the living and leading student residential community, and more. Check out the online global learning search tool to see how you can get involved, at globallearning.ucdavis.edu
What does global learning LOOK LIKE?

International student Radhika Marwaha received a grant through the Blum Center for Developing Economies within Global Affairs to travel to India and continue her work with a student club, Project RISHI.

International students and former Global Ambassadors Jonathan Su and Jeremy Chuardy took a taste from their home countries and developed a sustainable soy-based cracker that earned a spot in a major product development competition.

Global Affairs Student Assistant Tene Goodwin spent the summer working with the UC Davis Mandela Washington Fellowship and got the chance to learn about and connect with 25 young professionals from Sub-Saharan Africa.
International Education Week

Each November, UC Davis joins universities and organizations across the U.S. to celebrate International Education Week (IEW). Designated by the U.S. Department of State and U.S. Department of Education, IEW offers the campus and community an opportunity to celebrate the benefits of international education and exchange. International students and scholars are encouraged to participate in workshops, fairs, and community events throughout this week. Learn more at globalaffairs.ucdavis.edu/iew

Picnic Day

Picnic Day is a campuswide open house and revered tradition that brings thousands of visitors to experience all that UC Davis has to offer through exhibits, shows, demonstrations, a parade, and more. International students, scholars, and their families are invited to march in the parade with UC Davis Global Affairs and International House Davis and participate in globally inspired exhibits.

International Graduation Celebration

Each June, SISS hosts a ceremony and reception for graduating international students at the end of spring quarter, celebrating the UC Davis international community. Family and friends are also invited to attend and celebrate! Learn more at globalaffairs.ucdavis.edu/events/international-student-graduation
ABOUT GLOBAL AFFAIRS

Global Affairs brings the world to UC Davis, welcoming more than 10,000 international students, scholars, and leaders, and hosting programs that inspire global curiosity, understanding, and engagement. Compelled by the valuable outcomes of thinking globally, we make transformative opportunities a reality by supporting the thousands of students and faculty studying and researching internationally—and by facilitating collaborations that tackle the world’s most pressing problems through more than 150 international partnerships.

As our world becomes more interconnected, our job market becomes more global, our knowledge crosses more boundaries, and our well-being relies upon interdependence, access to international and intercultural learning opportunities is more important than ever. Putting our vision of a UC Davis community that engages, thrives, and leads in this interconnected world into action, Global Affairs is in pursuit of an ambitious goal: Global Education for All.
